

Being a Big Advocate for your Elementary School Counseling Program

There are many ways you can keep your counseling program on everyone's minds. Here are just a few ideas:

Intro Letter	Send a letter home with all students at the beginning of the year telling about yourself and your program.	 https://goo.gl/WyzqWL
Newsletter	Send home a regular newsletter updating parents/families about your program. You might include what you are teaching, what kinds of groups you have going, or any special events happening/coming up.	 https://goo.gl/rcDJPC
Website/ Blog	Having a website is a great way for people to find you. I have several pages that stay the same all year. My home page includes a blog I update regularly with information about my weekly lessons.	 http://counselorhoell.weebly.com/
Twitter	Regularly tweet to keep parents thinking about you. You could tweet about resources, lesson extensions, photos from class, articles, etc.	 @CounselorHoell
School Counseling Week	What a great opportunity to thank teachers for supporting your program! You can send messages or have little treats each day for your staff ☺	 https://goo.gl/vxHHHX
Lesson extensions	After lessons summarize for teachers what their kids learned and provide books, worksheets, or activities that go along with what you are teaching.	 goo.gl/vxHHHX
